Reflection: For how long? "For with the measure you use, will be measured out to you" (Luke 6:38) This is why the Lord's Prayer emphatically states, "Forgive us as we forgive those who trespass against us." Forgiveness is an essential part of generosity. It takes a very generous person to forgive without keeping record of the number of times. Hence to ask us how many times we should give another person an opportunity depends on how many opportunities we ourselves have had. Forgiveness is not a favour that we do to those who offend us; it is an obligation we owe to our benevolent God and ourselves. How is it that, after receiving so much, we cannot from that abundance that we have received forgive? The point is that we all owe one another a debt of love (Rom 13:8) and the more we forgive, the more we redeem our debt. 'God's Word, Daily Reflections 2023.'
