The Pastor's Corner
Peace and Goodness to All!

Congratulations to Trudy Cortens and Marie Javora from Madonna House Apostolate who celebrated their 60th and 50th jubilees of commitment in the promises of poverty chastity and obedience to the Lord in this blessed ministry. They have served many of Gods people demonstrating the Love of God so others could come to know Jesus through Mary in their ministry. We are deeply grateful to them also for the many parishioners they have served May God Bless them richly in their lives in fiat and ministry to the Lord.

Today we celebrate our annual Stewardship weekend. The mission of our parish is: Living and Proclaiming the Gospel through Stewardship, all are welcome. The ways we realize our mission are on display in the parish hall after all the masses. Each of our many organizations and ministries sponsors a booth presenting information and individuals to help you to understand what we do and how you can become involved in the life and mission of the parish in big and small ways. Please go over to the hall after mass and browse the various booths and enjoy the refreshments and fellowship offered.

This past Tuesday the Merry Makers gathered for the monthly Mass and Luncheon. There were over a hundred seniors here to enjoy prayer, fellowship and a great meal of Spaghetti and Meatballs prepared by Dominic and Maria Caprara as well as door prizes provided by Rose DiTommaso, our hostess with the moistest. Thank you to all who volunteer to make this event a happening to remember for our beloved seniors.

Thursday the students and faculty of Marrocco Merton High School were here to celebrate the opening Mass for the school year. It was as ever a great joy to see so many young people gathered to worship the Lord and participate in the Eucharist which is the source and summit of our faith as Catholic Christians. May the Lord continue to bless them throughout the year and may the Holy Spirit inspire their lives for loving service to God's people.

Thank you to all who participated making our Stewardship Weekend possible. Special thanks to Cyndy O'Grady whose organizational skills bought things together, and Cathi Richardson whose advocacy is always a blessing. We pray that many new volunteers will step forward to become involved in our dynamic parish life and ministry. We also want to thank the members of the Catholic Women's League (CWL) who are integrated so deeply in all of our parish efforts.

May the Lord continue to bless our parish in the Love and Joy of Christ Jesus

Fr. Dan
