REFLECTIONS

Friday March 10, 7:30pm

Join our Musician-in-Residence, Dr. Lindsay McIntyre, and pianist Wesley Shen in an evening of musical reflections drawn out of solitary life. Music including Olivier Messiaen's Trois mélodies, selections by Benjamin Britten and Henry Purcell, and Samuel Barber's Hermit Songs. Admission is free, donations are gratefully accepted towards St. Basil's music program.

12PM SUNDAY MASS – TEMPORARY LOCATION CHANGE

A reminder that the elevator at St. Basil's will be out of service from Monday, February 6 until Saturday, April 1. The 12:00pm (noon) Sunday Mass will be celebrated across the street at the Cardinal Flahiff Basilian Centre chapel (95 St. Joseph St.), which has elevator access at the west glassed-in entrance near Kelly Library. If you have questions, please contact Margaret in the parish office at (416) 926-7110 or margaret.delia@utoronto.ca

A FEMININE FACE FOR A NEW DAY

March 10th - 12th

Register: registration@manresa.ca

A silent Ignatian weekend retreat for women. Ignatian Spirituality gifts us with lively faith and deep promise in a world that is both beautiful and struggling. It nourishes us in the practice of the presence of God in all reality and in the sacred mystery of the "ordinary". In this time of retreat, we will explore the Ignatian tradition anew and its practice in light of women's experiences in contemporary living. We will seek together the feminine face of Ignatian Spirituality; a face that brings freedom of expression and a fullness to the dynamic of the Ignatian tradition for a new time and in novel ways for a world hungry for hope. Facilitated by Sr. Mary Rowell, CSJ. A suggested offering of $245 per person. Includes 2 nights accommodation, meals, program and spiritual direction.

COMPANIONS ON THE JOURNEY

Companions on the Journey: A Lenten Retreat of Prayer & Conversation on Living Our Faith

March 11, 2023 - 11:00am

March 13, 2023 - 7:00pm

Lent is a time when we seek to follow Christ with renewed commitment and intense focus. Lent presents the opportunity to ask: am I living out my faith and love for Jesus in every aspect of my life? Join us as we explore this question as a parish family at Companions on the Journey, a Lenten retreat of prayer and community conversation on living our faith.

We will gather in person at the parish on Saturday, March 11 from 10 AM to noon for Eucharistic Adoration, guided contemplative prayer, and small-group conversations on the theme of living our faith in everyday life. Alternatively, you can join us over Zoom on Monday, March 13 from 7:00pm, to 9:00pm for a virtual version of the retreat and community conversation.

Come prepared to share your stories and listen to the experiences of others. Your voice matters and we want to hear about your encounters with Christ! Register by contacting Michael at (416) 926-2075 or michael.pirri@utoronto.ca

We look forward to journeying together!

LENTEN PRACTICES

Fridays in Lent

You are invited to drop by Friday afternoons in Lent for Stations of the Cross. You are invited to use one of the booklets that will be set out at the back of the church.

Little Black Books

Reflections begin February 19, 2023, end Easter Sunday, April 9, 2023. Reflections will be based on the Passion narrative of Matthew. You can purchase the e-book online at littlebooks.org

GOD IN THE AGE OF CERTAINTY

Thursday March 9, 7:00pm-8:30pm (online)

Register: <https://bit.ly/4oODqhA>

Recommended by the Office for Promoting Christian Unity and Religious Relations with Judaism

In this first session of a three-part series, Rabbi Dr. Joshua Ladon, Director of Education for the Shalom Hartman Institute of North America, will explore the social and political implications of faith in society.

Drawing on select Jewish thinkers, various spiritual and philosophical approaches will be presented on the role of faith in strengthening the common good.

Plan to join this webinar to understand the Jewish contribution to faith in the public square, especially in times of great social change and upheaval.
