EASTER MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR: I wish all our parishioners a very happy Easter. With the Paschal mystery, just celebrated, we are reminded of the great love of God for mankind. It also assures us that we are the people of the new covenant in the blood of Christ, recipients of the promise of eternal life in God’s Kingdom. In the midst of the turmoil and turbulence of daily living, we can maintain our confidence and composure that the risen Lord is with us and not even the greatest evil in this world, not even death itself can shake our trust and faith in the divine plan for us. May all of us continue our journey to the heavenly Promised Land, with unshakeable certainty of success and victory. Happy Easter to all!
Fr. Pedro

Your support is greatly appreciated.

EARTH DAY: My name is Amy Howe and I am the grade six teacher at Assumption Catholic School. My students have been working diligently toward their goal of creating an Art Show-with an environmental message: you can make art with recycled materials! We would like to cordially invite you, your friends and family to our gala on Tuesday, April 22nd, in our gymnasium. We are located at 236 Levis Street in Vanier. Doors will open from 5:00 pm until 7:00 pm. Admission is only $2.00. There will be a variety of activities, including: looking at the art made by all of the students in our school, with an option to buy items at $3.00 apiece; meeting local artists and viewing their art, with the option of purchase, as they will have their creations on display; viewing an environmental video presentation created by the grade six class and a super-creative silent cake auction. Enjoy refreshments and cookies for a minimal cost. My students are working toward raising money for their end-of-year trip to St. Brigid's camp. Please come and help this amazing project.
