St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen (April 24)

Born in 1577, Mark Rey became a lawyer who constantly upheld the causes of the poor and oppressed people. Nicknamed "the poor man's lawyer," Rey soon grew disgusted with the corruption and injustice he saw among his colleagues. He left his law career to become a priest, joining his brother George as a member of the Capuchin Order. Fidelis was his religious name. His wealth was divided between needy seminarians and the poor.

Fidelis was canonized in 1746.

A Message from Your Pastor

Alleluia! The Lord is risen Alleluia!

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, let us rejoice with the whole Christendom as it celebrates our salvation. Jesus brought victory to the Church his bride.

This Sunday, the Gospel tells us the story of Mary Magdalen visiting the tomb of Jesus early in the morning. She immediately went to tell the disciples what she saw. Full of joy, she was eager to proclaim the resurrection of Jesus. She became the bearer of good news. Later, Peter and the other disciples would also proclaim the resurrection and would bear witness to it and would even die for Jesus. They were able to become strong and firm amid persecutions because the Holy Spirit guided them. They have opened their hearts to be transformed by the power of God shown through Jesus' passion, death and resurrection.

We continue the work of the Apostles in proclaiming and bearing witness to the resurrection of Jesus. The Church ask us to follow Jesus, gaze on His face and allow Him to transform us with His love through the Holy Spirit.

Let us live our faith and be a living witness of Christ in the world.

Ave Maria!
