Collection Report
For the week ending

July 28, 2019 - $2,553.

Thanks to all for your wonderful and on-going support

A copy of the Treasurer's Report may be requested from the Parish Office.

Peace and Joy!

The readings for this Sunday centers on the foundation of our Faith.... from Jesus our cornerstone to the Apostles and the Fathers of the Church. We, the Church continues to sing the faith of our Fathers. It is a faith that has matured and has been sustained by the Word and the Eucharist throughout the centuries.

Christ is everything for us.

"Let us work for the good of all, and especially for the family of the faith".

—Galatians 6.106

Our fathers and mothers in the Old Testament trusted in the Word of God. It guided them and brought them to the fullness of time in Jesus. Jesus, the Word of God, became flesh and dwells among us, He continues to nourish and guide us in the Eucharist.

Jesus in today's Gospel reminds us to live the faith our fathers had left for us. He reminds us to be vigilant in practicing our faith for we will surely be reaping the fruits of what we sow.
