Catechism of the Catholic Church: I BELIEVE IN JESUS CHRIST, THE ONLY SON OF GOD... on the third day he rose again

CCC 639 The mystery of Christ's resurrection is a real event, with manifestations that were historically verified, as the New Testament gives witness. In about A.D. 56 St. Paul could already write to the Corinthians (15:3-4): "I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve..." The Apostle speaks here of the living tradition of the Resurrection which he had learned after his conversion at the gates of Damascus.

CCC 647 (selection). Although the Resurrection was an historical event that could be verified by the sign of the empty tomb and by the reality of the apostles' encounters with the risen Christ, still it remains at the very heart of the mystery of faith as something that transcends and surpasses history. This is why the risen Christ does not reveal himself to the world, but to his disciples, "to those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses to the people" (Acts 13:31; cf. John 14:22).

CCC 648-649 (selection). In the Resurrection the three divine persons act together as one, and manifest their own proper characteristics. The Father's power "raised up" Christ his Son Jesus who is conclusively revealed as "Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his Resurrection from the dead" (Rom 1:3-4; cf. Acts 2:24). St. Paul insists on the manifestation of God's power through the working of the Spirit who gave life to Jesus' dead humanity and called it to the glorious state of Lordship (Cf. Rom 6:4; 2 Cor 13:4; Phil 3:10; Eph 1:19-22; Heb 7:16). Jesus' effect his own Resurrection by virtue of his divine power. Jesus announces that the Son of man will have to suffer much, die, and then rise. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again." (Jn 10:17-18). "We believe that Jesus died and rose again." (1 Thess 4:14).
