Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Featured Saint of the Week

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Aug.15)
This feast has been celebrated in the Eastern Rites of the Church since the sixth century and in Rome since the seventh. In 1950 Pope Pius XII solemnly defined the dogma of the Assumption of the BVM: at the end of her earthly life, she was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory. This is part of the Deposit of Faith received from the Apostles.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Peace!

With all the world events that took place (Tension between US and Iraq, Forest fire in Australia, Ukrainian Plane Crash, Taal Volcano Eruption, Locust swarm in East Africa, and the Nobel Corona Virus 19). One can easily be tempted to ask the question: Where is God? Does God really care?

In today's first reading, we see the prophet Elijah who waited for the passing of the Lord. God made himself felt by Elijah through the gentle breeze.

In the Gospel, we see Jesus walking on the waters amidst the strong wind.

In both events, they were able to see God's loving presence, when their hearts were calmed and serene.

Amidst these terrible things that is happening in our world, we are asked to stay calm, gaze on the face of Jesus, the face that speaks of tender love. Jesus who continues to assure us: "Do not be afraid, I have overcome the world."

With Peter (the church), we can walk over the waters with Jesus. Jesus will protect us, He will be our refuge, our strength. He will deliver us from all dangers if we return to him and trust Him.

Finally, the Gospel ends with them getting on the boat and the wind cease. Those in the boat worshipped Him.

Let us return to the boat (the church) and the wind will cease. Let us then worship Him, saying: "Truly you are the Son of God!"

Ave Maria!
