Our Lady of Lourdes

February 11th marks the first apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary in 1858 to fourteen-year-old Bernadette Soubirous. There were eighteen in all, the last of which was on July 16, 1858. The message of Lourdes is a call to conversion, prayer, and charity.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and goodness

through our Lord Jesus Christ!

The first reading and the Gospel this Sunday present to us a picture of an authentic encounter with God. Both the prophet Isaiah and St. Peter felt and recognized their sinfulness and inadequacy to the calling when they experience God.

The more we know and encounter the person of Jesus, the more we will see clearly the truth of our soul's condition. We will surely realize our sinfulness. We often hear the saints saying that they are the greatest of all sinners. However, looking at their life we see only their holiness. They are able to see their sinfulness because they are shown the purity of their Master, Jesus.

This Sunday, the Church asks us to reflect on our life.

If we cannot see our sinfulness, it might be because our encounter with the Lord is not authentic. Maybe our eyes are clouded; that is why we cannot see clearly. Maybe our ears are blocked from hearing the Master's voice. We have to purify our hearts and take away all blockages so that we may see clearly and hear distinctly.

Let us allow ourselves to be purified by entering into the immaculate heart of Mary; that we may be re-born cleansed of all impurities and that we may hear her voice that says: "Do whatever my Son tells you to do!"

Ave Maria!
