St. John Bosco, Priest (January 31)

St. John (1815-1888) founded the Salesian Society, named in honor of St. Francis de Sales, and the Daughters of Our Lady, Help of Christians. An enlightened educator and innovator, his lifework was the welfare of young boys and girls; hence, he is called the "Apostle of Youth." He had no formal system or theory of education; his method centered on persuasion, authentic religiosity, and love for young people.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace!

We are asked this Sunday to continue walking with the light of Christ. The coming of Jesus gave us light, and we are to carry Jesus, the light to all nations in our hearts. The everlasting flame of the love of God will purify the world as a fire purifies gold. Jesus is our light and our salvation!

The second reading tells us to live in harmony with our brothers and sisters, always seeking for the common good, setting our common goal which is heaven. Let us cast off our selfish motives and let us look beyond ourselves, discerning what is beneficial to the community, one that would bring us closer to God.

The Gospel tells us about the calling of his first disciples. Jesus continues to call men and women of today to be his disciples. As in the past, he asks us to leave our old self and let us be transformed by his redeeming love.

Without us leaving behind our old self, the spirit cannot renew us. As we begin this year, let us be renewed by the Spirit of God.

Ave Maria!
