Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Featured Saint of the Week

St. Camillus de Lellis, Priest (July 18)

Born into a noble family in Italy, St. Camillus (1550-1614) was a young soldier of fortune who became penniless because of an addiction to gambling. Having decided to consecrate his life to the service of the sick, he improved the treatment and care of hospital patients and founded the Order of Ministers of the Sick (Camellians).

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Peace and all goodness!

In today's Gospel, the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we see again Jesus teaching the people. Let us take note of the place where he taught the people. He sat on the boat, on the shore, a symbol of the Church. Even now, Jesus continues to teach in the church.

Like in the time of Jesus, many will hear but will not be able to listen. Many will see but will not be able to perceive for as Jesus says: "their hearts have grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes." The Good News is that Jesus also told us that: If His people would turn their hearts to Him, He will heal them.

The "Word of God" sown in us will bear fruit only if we cultivate the love God has given us. The more we love God and our neighbour, the more we are filled with love, the more we give the more we receive. When we do not put love into practice, we become impoverished, even the little that we have, we will lose it. Caring for one another is a true sign of our being children of God. Let us try to think more of others than ourselves. The secret of true happiness is letting ourselves be consumed in love.

Ave Maria!
