Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (July 16)

This feast commemorates the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary to St. Simon Stock, the superior general of the Carmelite Order, in 1251. She promised a special blessing for those who wear her scapular. The Church heartily recommends this devotion, and countless Christians have taken advantage of Our Lady's protection.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and Goodness!

As we continue our journey in this life, the liturgy highlights important aspects to help us focus on the essentials and not to be lured by the things of this world.

The past Sundays, as we enter the ordinary time, we are nourished in our growth by the Word and the Eucharist. The first reading last Sunday highlighted the Mother who nursed and fed her children with good food. This Sunday, the 15th in ordinary time, Our mother Church feeds us with the greatest of all commandments, loving God and our neighbour.

The words of Mary, mother of the Church continues to echo... "Do whatever my Son tells you to do." Jesus' becoming man is to show us the "face of our Father in heaven", the face of a Father's love, so that we his children could learn from him how to love our neighbours.

The scholar of the Law asked: "Who is my neighbour?" Jesus responded with a parable showing that our neighbours are those who are in need. As Catholics, we have a moral responsibility towards those who are needy.

We are asked to bring Jesus to them.

May the liturgy we celebrate determine what we believe and the manner of our living. (Lex Orandi, Lex Credendi, Lex Vivendi!)

Ave Maria!
