Our Lady of the Angels of Portiuncula (August 2)

When St Francis of Assisi forsook the world, it was his first pious act to restore this sanctuary of the Queen of heaven, which had become somewhat dilapidated.

A special impulse led St Francis on a certain night to go to the chapel. There he saw our Lord and His holy Mother surrounded by a great host of angels. Filled with astonishment and reverence, the saint prostrated himself upon the ground and adored the Divine Majesty. Then he heard the voice of our Lord urging him with ineffable tenderness to ask some special favor.

Saint Francis presented himself to Pope Honorius III, who, after having assured himself of the truth of the vision, granted his request, but with the restriction that the indulgence could be gained on one day of the year. The 2nd of August was the designated day, that being the anniversary of the little church's dedication.

Through the years, popes have extended this indulgence to all Franciscan churches. They have also granted that the indulgence can be gained not only once, but as often as one visits a franciscan church and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father. Besides, the indulgence can be applied to the holy souls in purgatory.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace!

We see in this Sunday's readings a God who wants to be intimate with us. His visit to Abraham last week develops into a deep relationship. Abraham, our "father in the faith" and "friend of God" speaks boldly to God. That relationship grows and finds its peak in Jesus, the Son of God coming to dwell within us. Jesus continues that invitation to be his friend and brother in the Eucharist we celebrate. The Eucharist is the seal of the love of God.

The Father is true to his promise to Abraham. For the sake of the only just Man, Jesus, He is not destroying the world. Jesus' coming is to bring us back to the Father, for the impure to be made pure, for the unjust to be justified. Jesus' gift of redemption is offered to all who would have a welcoming heart. It's a gift where Jesus paid a great price.

Ave Maria!
