Saint of the Week

St. Alphonsus Liguori, Bishop and Doctor of the Church (Aug. 1), Born in Naples, Italy, St. Alphonsus (1696-1787) was a lawyer who became a priest. He founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorist). He was proclaimed a Doctor of the Church for his writings on moral theology. Promoting a devotion to the Eucharist and our Lady, he worked with zeal for the poor and the sick.

A Message from the Pastor

Peace and all goodness!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, today's second reading continues the theme of gathering which was highlighted last Sunday. However, the first reading and the Gospel gives us the reason for that call to gather for the breaking of the bread and the word of God.

In both the first reading and the Gospel, we see a God whose love and generosity to us, His people, is overflowing. That generosity finds its climax in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass we celebrate. God in His love and generosity, gave us His only begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus emptied Himself, stripped Himself and stooped down to the lowest point our our humanity to raise us up to the dignity of becoming "children of God".

The merits of that great sacrifice cannot be exhausted. It became the source and summit of our lives. Those who eat and drink of His Body and Blood is satisfied. From generation to generation, it has nourished us. Through the Church, Jesus continues to give us His very self and through the Church and the Sacraments, the living presence of God.

Let us come and let ourselves be fed by our mother, the Church, with the Word and the Eucharist.

Ave Maria!
