A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOBE

Peace and all good!

God bless and Welcome to Father Francis Victor Mateo, OFM Conv.!

In today's first reading as Isaiah foretells the coming of the Saviour, he exhorts all to rejoice. Of course, the Saviour's coming foresaw not only joy but the Cross of Christ, of which St. Paul boasts in the second reading. In fact, all the apostles are warned that they will have to contend with the power of the enemy as they preach the coming of the Kingdom of God. Above all, in the Gospel, Jesus tells them that they are to preach Peace to whatever house they enter while remaining "in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide..."

Today, all of us rejoice at the coming of our new pastor, Father Francis Victor. As part of his calling, we know that he will encounter the Cross but we promise that he won't find it here with us, the parishioners of Assumption. As a disciple of St. Francis, we know that Fr. Francis Victor will be a man of peace blessing our homes and hearts with that peace. I am sure that, when he visits the homes, there will be no shortage of drink and food and please add a little extra (palabok) if Father Jobe is with him.

I personally want to thank everyone for their support and prayers since taking over the interim administration of the parish on March 19th. God bless and reward your goodness with every grace. God bless Father Francis Victor with a long and grace-filled time as pastor at Assumption.
