The First Martyrs of Holy Roman Church (June 30) St. Benedict, Abbot (July 11)

Born in Norcia, Italy, and educated in Rome, St. Benedict (480-547) lived a solitary life in mountainous Subiaco for three years. He later organized twelve monasteries; where the monks devoted themselves to prayer and work. In the abbey of Monte Cassino, which he founded, he wrote his Rule, which wonderfully combines the Roman genius with the monastic wisdom of the Christian East. Pope Paul VI proclaimed him patron of Europe because of his influence on the formation of Christendom.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and all Goodness!

As we journey into the world in ordinary time in the Church liturgical calendar, we are being nourished by Holy Mother Church with the "Word" and with the "Body" and "Blood" of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Church wants us to grow in the knowledge and love of God in Jesus, through the Holy Spirit.

As individuals grow with the Church, nourishing them, the Church also grows. In the Early Church, that growth is both quality and quantity. The more we become receptive to God through the Church, the more we grow as individuals and as Church, the Body of Christ.

Gazing on Jesus whom we celebrate in the Eucharist, we are asked, as disciples of Christ, to preach the Good News by our way of living.

Let us allow the Word to nourish our lives so that we may become a Eucharist for others for their nourishment.

Ave Maria!

Fr. Dominic Maria Lim, OFMConv.
