From the Pastor's Office

The GOSPEL of this 14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME portrayed Jesus as a new and greater Moses.

The latter was God's friend and knew God "face to face" (cf. Deuteronomy 34:10). The former was more than God's friend. He is the Son who alone knows the Father: "All things have been delivered to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him" (Matthew 11:27).

Moses gave Israel the Commandments of GOD in the Old Testament; meanwhile, Jesus presents Himself as the new Commandment and the revealed Wisdom of God: "I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to infants; Father, for such was thy gracious will." (Matthew 11:25-26).

In the gracious will of the Father, Jesus reveals these things only to those who humble themselves before Him as little children (cf. Sirach 2:17). Only then can we recognize and receive Jesus as the just savior and meek king promised to daughter Zion, Israel. (FIRST READING).

How in particular? First, we are called to childlike faith in the Lord's goodness as His sons and daughters in the Church. Second, we are to live by the Holy Spirit we received in Baptism, putting to death our old ways of thinking and acting (SECOND READING). Third, we must live a life of love by which we receive the rest of His kingdom.

GOD's invitation to all ---

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." (Matthew 11:28-30).

The Parish community extends our condolence to the McNiel family on the passing on of Anthony McNeil last June 14, 2023. Tony and his late wife Helen (nee MacKenzie) were active members of the Assumption community. Let us continue praying for their eternal rest.
