A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOBE

Peace and every good! Happy Father's Day and blessings upon all the fathers.

This Sunday we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ or Corpus Christi. In one sense, by our communion, we are the body of Christ. In another sense, in Holy Communion, it is Eucharist or the Christ. Not long ago, I was distributing Holy Communion when a young father approached the altar carrying a three or four year old boy. When the child asked what it was the father was receiving, he simply replied, "That's God." I was so filled with emotion that I could hardly say "Body of Christ" to the next few parishioners. What a beautiful moment to see a father pass on the faith in such a simple, yet profound way.

Our readings for today also tell the simple truth. From the outset and the Book of Genesis (1st reading), we find Melchizedek, a figure of Christ and the long line of priests who followed Him. In the Gospel, Christ anticipates the sacrament of the Eucharist as He multiplies the five loaves and two fish. Then, Paul's first Letter to the Corinthians (2nd reading) recounts the Last Supper and the institution of the Holy Eucharist. The manna from heaven, that fed the Israelites, has now become the Bread of Life for us Catholic Christians. When we receive Holy Communion today, let us respond heartily, "Amen", that is, "Yes, it is true" or, as the young father declared, "That's God!"
