St. Norbert, Bishop (June 6)

Born in Xanten in what is now Germany, St. Norbert (1080-1134) turned from a worldly life, became a monk and itinerant preacher, founded the Premonstratensians and later was consecrated Archbishop of Magdeburg. Through his example and preaching, he implanted the religious and moral reforms of Pope Gregory VII.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and all good!

The Ascension of Jesus to heaven body and soul is presented in today's readings as the crowning glory of Easter.

Jesus, after his victorious triumph over sin and death, now returns to the Father, bringing with him his human body. In Jesus' ascension, humanity entered the heavens and is welcomed by a multitude of angels. The heavens rejoices exultantly because the love of God triumphed over hatred. Once again creation was united to his Creator.

Today's feast leads to another great feast, "the Pentecost". The coming of the Holy Spirit will enlighten/ illuminate the hearts of all faithful. It is the Good News that was proclaimed by the Apostles to the world. It is the same Good News that we Catholic Christians are asked to proclaim now.

The same Jesus who ascended into heaven, is asking us to proclaim it to the ends of the world.

May our hearts be enlightened by the mystery of our faith so that we may live our lives fully and that our joy may be complete and that we may be true witnesses of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ave Maria!
