Never permit me to be separated from You.*

Amen

PRAYER DURING THE PANDEMIC

Lord God, I pray for all who have become sick or died by the coronavirus that has been spreading throughout the world. In your mercy and compassion, deliver us from this disease. In your holy wisdom, guide all who are working to contain the outbreak. In your steadfast love, bring healing to all your children who have fallen sick. Welcome into your arms the ones that died, comfort the ones they left behind. In faith, I place my trust in you. In hope, I turn to you in my time of need. In love, I give glory to your name. In gratitude, I will praise you with my life. In your Son's name I pray, Amen.

Featured Saint of the Week

St. Oliver Plunkett, Martyr (July 2)

The name of today's saint is especially familiar to the Irish and the English—and with good reason. The English martyred Oliver Plunkett for defending the faith in his native Ireland during a period of severe persecution.

Born in County Meath in 1629, Oliver studied for the priesthood in Rome and was ordained there in 1654. After some years of teaching and service to the poor of Rome he was appointed Archbishop of Armagh in Ireland. Four years later, in 1673, a new wave of anti-Catholic persecution began, forcing Archbishop Plunkett to do his pastoral work in secrecy and disguise and to live in hiding. Meanwhile, many of his priests were sent into exile, schools were closed, Church services had to be held in secret, and convents and seminaries were suppressed. As archbishop, Plunkett was viewed as ultimately responsible for any rebellion or political activity among his parishioners.

Archbishop Plunkett was arrested and imprisoned in Dublin Castle in 1679, but his trial was moved to London. After deliberating for 15 minutes, a jury found him guilty of fomenting revolt. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered in July 1681.

Pope Paul VI canonized Oliver Plunkett in 1975.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Peace and Joy!

The book of Wisdom reminds us today that God does not want us to perish. He does not delight in the death of the living. From the very beginning, He gives life abundantly. Jesus was clear in saying that: He came so that we might have life and have it abundantly.

When Adam and Eve sinned, they broke the bond of friendship with God. They cut their ties with God, like branches that was cut from the Vine.

But God's goodness and generosity is beyond measure. He went out of Himself, sent His only begotten Son, to mend the broken tie by laying down of His life. He died for us that we may live. He died so that by He is coming back to life, we can again enjoy the life that flows abundantly with God. Jesus restored us by His love. By following Jesus, we discover the true meaning and essence of our life. We were given new life, beauty unsurpassed.

The love of God made us victorious over the poison of sin and death. In the Gospel this Sunday, we see Jesus healing the daughter of Jairus and the woman who was suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. Both were healed by a "contact" with Jesus. The woman by touching the cloak of Jesus, and the child by Jesus taking her hand.

Life flows from Jesus and Jesus wants to take our hands to give us the fullness of life but we need also to make our gesture of connecting to Him. If we touch even just the cloak of Jesus, we will be healed, we will stop wasting life (like the symbol of the woman having hemorrhages). We will find new life in Jesus, by Him taking our hands and raising us up and we will start walking with Him.

Ave Maria!
