The First Martyrs of Holy Roman Church (June 30)

This feast commemorates the martyrs in Rome under Nero about AD 64. Many Christian from all walks of life were martyred at the hands of this emperor. This celebration reminds Christians to seek sanctity regardless of social status, age, or skills.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and all Goodness!

After celebrating the Solemnity of Corpus Christi last Sunday, we are led by mother church to a more deeper relation with Jesus in the Eucharist. As the church teaches, the Eucharist is the source and summit of our life. Life flows from the Eucharist and finds its meaning back into it. It is where we learn to love God with all our heart, mind, and being. It is also in the Eucharist where we learn how to love our neighbour, the greatest commandment to which according to Jesus, our Lord, all the prophets and law are summed up.

Today, the first reading tells us the story of the calling of Elisha to be a prophet of God by following Elijah the prophet. The second reading on the other hand highlights the law.

Both the first reading and the second reading point towards the Eucharist that we celebrate. Our celebration defines what we believe because it is what we believe that we celebrate and what we believe defines our way of living. As the old Liturgy tenet puts it: Lex Orandi, Lex Credendi, Lex Vivendi (The law of worship defines the law of our belief and the way we live our lives). After all it is our faith and life that we celebrate in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.
Ave Maria!
