A MESSAGE FROM FR. JOBE

Peace and every good!

On Pentecost, the Gospel reminds us that the doors of the Upper Room where the disciples had met "were locked for fear of the Jews." Another well-known Scripture assures us that it is the emotion of fear before God that is the beginning of wisdom (Prov.9:10). With the outpouring of the Holy Spirit by way of tongues of fire, the disciples were able to speak the languages of the world (1st reading). Indeed, in the Church today, that same Spirit pours out a wide variety of gifts for the building up of the Body of Christ (2nd reading). As St. Paul reminds us, these spiritual gifts are given to the faithful in order "that we become one in faith and in the knowledge of God's Son, and form that perfect man who is Christ come to full stature" (Eph. 4: 12-13).

Since Christ is the wisdom and knowledge of God, our coming to form that perfect man demands a certain attitude before God. Our humility, if not fear before God, is a good starting point. That is not to say the Lord is unapproachable or unloving. On the contrary, God is love and ready to bestow the many gifts of His Spirit on open and reverential hearts. More importantly, the gifts of the Spirit are not granted out of any sense of favoritism or privilege but, rather, because of the open and uncomplicated disposition of the simple-hearted before God. On this Pentecost Sunday, let us repeat with the Psalmist: "Lord, send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."
