IS GOD CALLING YOU?

Do you feel that God may be calling you to serve or to renew your commitment to a very special ministry? If so, pray for discernment for God's will and be faithful to respond to this call. Could it be that He is calling you to serve in the most sacred ministry of distributing Holy Communion at Mass or to the sick, homebound or dying? To carry the Eucharist, the body and blood of Christ to His people? If He is calling you to serve Him as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or if you feel that God is asking you to renew your commitment to this ministry here is your chance to respond. On Sunday May 15th at 2:00 pm at Assumption Parish we will be providing formation, including a reflection on the Eucharist and this most sacred ministry. This session will be followed by a Mass to commission for a period of three years all those that attended this session. Both the formation and the temporary commissioning are requirements under Church norms and Canon Law to serve in this ministry.

"Come and see" are the words that Jesus spoke to the two disciples in John 1: 39. The two disciples responded and followed Him. Because of this, their lives were changed forever in the most profound and wonderful way. Is Jesus calling you to "Come and See", are you willing to follow Him? If you are, please call the Parish Office (613-746-8503) and register for this session.
