St. Philip Neri, Priest

Born in Florence, St. Philip (1515-1595) was ordained in 1551, and in 1564 he founded the Congregation of the Oratory. He is noted for his zeal to convert sinners through the Sacrament of Penance and his cheerful disposition. He was a catechist and spiritual guide of extraordinary talent.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace in the Risen Lord!

The readings of this Sunday helps us to deepen more our relationship with God. Jesus came to reconcile us to the Father and He continues to connect us to the Father in Him through the Holy Spirit.

Loving Jesus is keeping His word and keeping His word, sustains our filial connection with the Father. Since the Father is the source of life, connected to Him, our life is sustained so that we might live our life to the fullest.

Jesus, in today's Gospel introduces the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit will remind and teach us of the things Jesus had taught the disciples.

Keeping Jesus' word gives us peace but not like the peace that the world offers. The peace of Christ is not just the absence of war or conflict. It is not superficial peace but a peace that if from within and grows within. It is an assurance of the love of the Father, an assurance that He will never abandon or desert us. An assurance of His loving presence: " Do not let yourself be worried, be not afraid, for I am with you always till the end of time.

Ave Maria!
