Saint of the Week

St. Justin, Martyr (June 1)

St. Justin (d.165) was a philosopher born in Samaria. A convert to Christianity, he passionately sought after the truth which he found in Christ. He defended the Christian faith in his writings, notably in his Apologies and Dialogue with Trypho. He was martyred in Rome during the reign of Marcus Aurelius.

Message from the Pastor

Peace!

Last Sunday, we celebrated the coming of the Holy Spirit that gave birth to the Church. Following it, last Monday, for the first time, the Church celebrated the obligatory memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church.

The birth of the Church signalled our belongingness to the family of God, thereby, every baptized catholic shares in the family of God.

The celebration of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity assures us of our deep connection to God the Father. And through His Son Jesus, the head of the Church who became one of us, and the Holy Spirit, continuously connects us to the Trinity through the Sacraments.

Let us try our best to pattern all our relationship with the source and perfection of all relationships especially our domestic families.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.
