Parish Pastoral Council membership is a form of community service. Positions within the council indicate specific responsibilities that parishioners willingly commit themselves to have better opportunities to do ministry. They are not positions of honor or power.

Last May 7, 2023, the Election Committee met and tallied the submitted nominations from the parishioners. After, the Parish Administrative Assistant checked the eligibility of each person nominated

REVISED LIST of eligible nominees for this 2023 Election:

The voting parishioners MUST write their full name, affix their signature --- the lack of it invalidates the vote. Also, if applicable, provide their envelope number, too

On or before May 28 – 1:00 PM, the ballots must return through the designated drop-box near the Church's main entrance.

Late submissions will not be honored!

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church
I believe in the HOLY SPIRIT

No. 683 “No one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit.” (1 Cor 12:3.) “God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, ‘Abba! Father!’” (Gal 4:6.) This knowledge of faith is possible only in the Holy Spirit: to be in touch with Christ, we must first have been touched by the Holy Spirit. He comes to meet us and kindles faith in us.

No. 685 To believe in the Holy Spirit is to profess that the Holy Spirit is one of the persons of the Holy Trinity, consubstantial with the Father and the Son: “with the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.” (Nicene Creed).

No. 686 The Holy Spirit is at work with the Father and the Son from the beginning to the completion of the plan for our salvation.

No. 687 “No one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.” (1 Cor 2:11.) Now God's Spirit, who reveals God, makes known to us Christ... but the Spirit does not speak of himself. the Spirit who “has spoken through the prophets” makes us hear the Father's Word, but we do not hear the Spirit himself. We know him only in the movement by which he reveals the Word to us and disposes us to welcome him in faith. the Spirit of truth who “unveils” Christ to us “will not speak on his own.” (Jn 16:13.)

No. 688 The Church, a communion living in the faith of the apostles which she transmits, is the place where we know the Holy Spirit: in the Scriptures he inspired; in the Tradition, to which the Church Fathers are always timely witnesses; in the Church's Magisterium, which he assists; in the sacramental liturgy, through its words and symbols, in which the Holy Spirit puts us into communion with Christ; in prayer, wherein he intercedes for us; in the charisms and ministries by which the Church is built up; in the signs of apostolic and missionary life; in the witness of saints through whom he manifests his holiness and continues the work of salvation.
