Featured Saint of the Week

All Saints (November 1)

This feast celebrates all the unknown saints who are now in Heaven. Sanctity is within everyone's reach; through the Communion of Saints each part of the Mystical Body of Christ helps every other to grow in holiness.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Peace!

Holy Mother Church dedicates the month of November to our faithful departed. Remembering them is to strengthen our bond with them for together with them and the saints in heaven, we form the Mystical Body of Christ.

Today, we celebrate the solemnity of all saint's day. The celebration reminds us of the mercy of God from age to age. The saints are concrete presence of the love and mercy of God. As in the Old Testament, God sends Prophets & Kings to make known his presence, now He sends Saints to make known that He is still with us.

Salvation has come not only for Israel but for the Gentile as well. The Church now thank God for these Holy men & women that He sent and continue to send to us. These two celebrations urge us with Hope to focus on our real destiny: Heaven.

Let us walk on the road that the saints had walked. Guided with their example and sustained by the grace from the Eucharist, let us march towards Heaven. While marching, let us remember with our prayers our brothers and sisters who have gone before us that we may all be reunited in the house of the Father, fulfilling what we are celebrating at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Ave Maria!
