Prayer for the Departed Souls

God our Father, Your power brings us to birth, Your providence guides our lives, and Your command we return to dust. Lord, those who die still live in Your presence, their lives changed but do not end. I pray in hope for my family relatives, friends and benefactors and for all the dead known to You alone. In company with Christ, who died and now lives, may they rejoice in Your kingdom, where all our tears are wiped away. Unite us together again in one family, to sing Your praise forever and ever, Amen.

Featured Saint of the Week

Blessed Salome, Virgin (November 18)

Salome was born in Cracow in the year 1211. As a young girl she was given in marriage to Coloman, prince of Halicsz and son of the king of Hungary, with whom she lived in virginal chastity. After her husband's death she entered the monastery of the Poor Clares at Cracow in the year 1245 and excelled especially in the virtues of obedience and humility. She died in the year 1268.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Peace and blessings!

As we near the end of the liturgical year, the church reminds us of our real goal and purpose in life, which is union with God, our Father in heaven through the merits of Jesus, our brother.

The readings assure us that amidst the tribulations of this world, Jesus gives us certain hope that God will never abandon us. But we must walk the path that leads to Him as Jesus did, to endure the pains and trials, to carry and embrace the Cross with Love.

Loving God and our neighbour (which forms the cross) is our vocation and mission.

We must focus our attention not on the tribulations but on Jesus who is our Way, Truth, & Life. We must gaze on the face of Jesus, and like Peter, we can also walk on the waters amidst the strong winds and big waves. Fear not for the Lord is with us. As Jesus reminds us in today's Gospel: "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

Jesus wants us to be vigilant and ready, for we do not know the day and the hour He is coming. His coming is certain! Let us prepare and let us allow Jesus to reign in our hearts for He is our true King!

Ave Maria!
