PRO LIFE NEWS

Christmas Fruitcakes produced by the Cistercian Monks will be on SALE at the front doors of the church after each Sunday Mass (purchase early they go fast). A percentage of the sales go to help Campaign Life Coalition a nonprofit organization promoting the end to abortion. The Respect Life Heart sign in the front yard of the church has been replaced, this is the second time it has been STOLEN. Please pray for those who evidently do not respect life from conception to its natural end. Thanks again to the Knights of Columbus St. Lorenzo Council 14337 for cover the cost of replacement of this sign. Thanks to those who supported the 40 Days For Life with their presence at the site and all the Prayers to End Abortion by our parishioners. Keep the Coin Buckets coming in! Your change helps make a big change in the campaign. Keep up your Prayers--commit yourselves to be active in the PRO LIFE movement
Your Pro Life Parish Rep: Frank J. Barrett

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE FALL CAMPAIGN

The Development & Peace Fall Campaign for 2011 is called "Together, We hold the Future in our Hands". This is the first year of a new five year program promoting ecological justice. These 5 years will be a journey as together we imagine a new model of development for the world, which puts the needs of the world's poorest first while respecting the ecological health of the earth.

Small scale sustainable farming, the focus of this year's Fall Campaign, promotes the common good of all creation. Small scale farming is ecologically responsible, more so than large scale industrial farming, which has been one of the biggest contributors to climate change in the last 50 years.

By signing this year's Development & Peace action cards you show your solidarity with small scale farmers. You help them to feed their communities, fight climate change, and improve their living conditions. You show that together we truly do hold the future in our hands. Action cards will be available both at the back & front entrances to the church this weekend.
