SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin and Martyr (Nov. 25)

According to tradition, St. Catherine (d. 310) was courageous and learned. She denounced Emperor Maxentius to his face and when she refused to apostatize, he imprisoned her, where she converted his wife and 200 soldiers before she was martyred.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and goodness from Christ, our King!

As we celebrate the solemnity of Christ, the King of the Universe, let us reflect on the kingship, which was given in the Old Testament to prepare for the coming of the real King, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

In the Old Testament, God gave Saul and David as King to serve and to guide His people. They are given to bring people back to God, to be able to return to the Kingdom of God but also as a prefigurement of the coming of the real King, Jesus.

Today, as we end the liturgical year, we crown it with the Kingship of Jesus, proclaiming Him as the King who reigns in our hearts. The whole creation proclaims Jesus as the King of the Universe.

He is the real king who loves and serves His people. A king who offered His life so His people may live. A king who sustains the life of the world and the universe.

Let us try to live our lives worthy of the dignity that our King, Jesus has bought back to us.

Ave Maria.
