SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Leo the Great, Pope & Doctor of the Church (Nov.10)
During the pontificate of St. Leo I (d.461), the Ecumenical Council of Chalcedon defined Jesus Christ as one Divine Person having two natures: divine and human. St. Leo had written Epistola Dogmatico (the "Tome" of Leo) to Patriarch Flavian of Constantinople, which was read and assented to by the Council Fathers..

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and Goodness!

Today's readings highlights Love as the fulfillment of the Law. It is also the highest among all the laws. St. Augustine once said: "Love and do what you will. It is love that gives meaning to our life.

The unity of the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three Persons in one God means that we must love Him with all our mind, with all our hearts and with all our strength. For to love Him, who is the source of love is to learn how to love properly. It is in loving Him that we are able to love truly our neighbor, even our enemies. Jesus commanded us to love as He love, without condition and to love even those who persecute us, our enemies. Jesus did not just commanded us, He showed it Himself when He embraced death not only for His friends but for all humanity.

Jesus loved us when we were yet sinner. Meaning, when we were yet unlovable and His love transformed us to make us beautiful and lovable.

Following Jesus is a difficult path but accepting it with love and humility, would transform us into Sons and Daughters of our Father in Heaven.

Ave Maria.
