Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Featured Saint of the Week

St. Luke, Evangelist (October 18)

A physician from Antioch, he converted to Christianity and accompanied Paul on two of his journeys. The author of both the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles, Luke devotes attention to Christ's birth and childhood as well as to the universality of the Redemption.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Health and blessings to you dear brothers and sisters in Christ!

After being guided by Holy Mother Church, through the Sunday readings, to be able to love God with all our being and to love our neighbour as ourselves, we are now led by her to discover Jesus not only as our brother but also our King. She prepares us to acknowledge him as the King of the Universe towards the end of the liturgical year as we near it.

Jesus is our only King, and His kingdom is not of this world. This shows us that, although we live in this world, our destination is heaven for we are citizens of heaven. We are to live in this world with our feet grounded on the earth but our eyes fixed on heaven.

Jesus commands us to be the light of the world and the salt of the earth: having a correct faith, laboring in perfect love with certain hope, discerning to know the will of God.

He wants us to give what is due to the government and to give what is due to God. We need to abide to civil laws as long as it does not conflict with the divine and natural laws.

He also demands that we give what is due to God. We owe God everything for everything comes from Him. True, the coin bears the image of Caesar, but we bear the image of God. Justice demands us to give him the highest worship (the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass). And as we worship God, our loving Father, let us pray for our leaders that like Cyrus, they do God's will.

Ave Maria!
