From the PASTOR'S office

Recently, I had the opportunity to spend some time away from the parish to visit Niagara Falls! The Falls are impressive; there is so much water flowing over them. I wonder where is its water source(s) and where the water leads. It is so beautiful; the place reminded me of God and his creative power. Filled with awe I gave praise to the Almighty, blessed the water, and prayed that wherever it flows, it may restore life and nourish everything along its paths --- up to each household, that it may bring healing to those who are ill and refreshments to those who are in need.

Reflecting about this experience, the words of St. Bonaventure of Bagnoregio comes to mind: "the whole creation speaks loudly of God, of the good and beautiful God; of his love." How about you? When was the last time you thanked God for His wonderful creation? Are you aware that we are stewards of creation --- that God has entrusted to our care the world he has created?

To be faithful to this steward's task, we ought to spend time (as individuals and as a parish community) to reflect our lifestyle, decisions, and our choices related to our responsibility toward promoting the INTEGRITY of CREATION. Therefore, the parish will celebrate the Season of Creation by having "Care for Creation Masses" this coming October 1 and 2, 2022. In addition, groups and mandated organizations are also to discuss (within October) their particular way of being stewards of God's creation and adopt a specific manner of its realization. The shared resource tool of this joint reflection is the 2017 document of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) entitled Living Out Laudato Si': A Commentary and Practical Resource for Canadian Catholics. Living_Out_Laudato_Si_En.pdf (ccb.ca)

THANKS to Nicolas and Nieves Murillo, friar Jeremiah Arguelles, OFMConv., Charles and Irish Olano for making our Niagara Trip possible and filled with joy; to friar Maurice Richard for celebrating Masses while we were away.
