SAINTE OF THE WEEK

St. Anthony Mary Claret, Bishop (October 24)

Born in Sallent, Spain, St. Anthony (1807-1870), was a missionary preacher in Catalonia and the Canary Islands. As Archbishop of Santiago, Cuba, he fought for humane conditions for slaves. Later, he led a revival of the Faith in Spain and founded the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (Claretians).

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace and all goodness through our Lord Jesus Christ

As winter season nears, nature reminds us to stay warm to be able to survive. Keeping our faith in the fire of God's love will keep our heart and soul warm throughout the winters of our lives, even the winters of our summers.

The Church continues to nourish us with the word of God and with the Eucharist. Today's Sunday readings remind us that there are more honor that God offers than the position/authorities this world gives.

The disciples were not exempted in the desire of the things of this world, but Jesus offers them a better and a more permanent honor and glory, the one that lasts and the one that touches the core of our being. We too, like the Apostles have our desire of the things of this world. But Jesus invites us to drink in His Cup, to share in His Sacrifice, so that we may share also in His Joy.

Let us respond to Jesus' invitation with love and trust!

Ave Maria.
