A REFLECTION ON THE NEW TRANSLATION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL: by Rev. Geoff Kerlake.

Why the Changes to the Gloria?

We examine the previous text of the Gloria alongside the new version, we note that although the wording has been expanded, it does not sound very different. There are changes but it does not seem as if we are praying something altogether new. The new version makes it clear at the beginning of Mass that we are gathering to do something utterly different from whatever else we do during the week. We are participating with heaven and earth in the Divine Liturgy, blending our voices with those of angels and saints. The Gloria's opening words repeat the message of the angels to the shepherds at the birth of Christ: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will" (Luke 2:14). Though human, we are privileged to join the angels in praising God and participate in the heavenly liturgy. The Gloria possesses rhetorical devices, such as repeating a word or a phrase, that reflect speech patterns from early Christianity. They highlight the reality that this is no ordinary "thank you" we are expressing to a friend or loved one. Instead, we are joining angelic choirs in adoring the Trinity.

Mission Prayer

Lord, our God, help us to walk with you on the pathway of the beatitudes and to live out your mission in today's world.

Bind us to all men and women of our time so that together we may bring the Good News to the ends of the earth.

Open our hearts and our Christian communities to the needy, the afflicted, the oppressed.

May we radiate the Living Christ and transform our lives in the hope of the Resurrection.

This prayer we make to you who are living God now and forever. Amen.
