SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Martin de Porres, Religious (November 3)
St. Martin (1579-1639) was born in Lima, Peru, and lived a life of fasting, prayer, and penance as a Dominican. Apprenticed at a young age, to a barber-surgeon, he provided medical care for the poor and the sick of Lima, especially ministering to slaves. He was devoted to the Blessed Eucharist and was a friend of St. Rose of Lima and St. John Macias.

A Message from Your Pastor

Pax et Bonum!

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year and the beginning of another liturgical year.

Today, the Gospel gives us the account of the healing of Bartimeus, the blind man. More than the sight, the true light of the world, he was able to see clearly. Jesus gave him direction in life.

When he heard that Jesus is calling him, he threw his cloak, which was his only protection and property. He knew that Jesus would take care of him, that Jesus is able to give his heart's desire to regain his sight.

After regaining his sight, he followed Jesus because he saw clearly the way, who is Jesus himself.

Like Bartimeus, let us beg the Lord to help us regain our sight amidst the darkness of the world. Let us beg him for the true light that we may see Him as our way, truth and Life. And like Bartimeus, let us follow Him for He is our sure hope.

Ave Maria.
