Mass Intentions

The Bible reminds us that God made the heavens and the earth. He loves and cares for all creation (Genesis 1:1-31, Matthew 6:25-34). The Creator also entrusted us with care for God's creation (Genesis 2:15).

St. Francis of Assisi understood this as a communion of all creation. Everything is connected. When we respect the created world, we acknowledge God as our Creator and the inherent value of all things. Therefore, our prayer for the environment should flow towards our sincere love for our brothers and sisters.

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION SEPTEMBER 2024

We pray that each one of us will hear and take to heart the cry of the Earth and of victims of natural disasters and climactic change, and that all will undertake to personally care for the world in which we live.

25th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Last Sunday, we heard of Jesus' invitation: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me" (Mark 8:34). To be with our Savior is to profess FAITH, which finds expression in our deeds of charity toward our neighbors according to the Father's command to selfless love.

This Sunday, once again, we are called to remember the ultimate sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus: "Take up [the] cross, follow me." He who is the Christ. He must suffer greatly, be rejected and killed, and then rise after three days. This is the core of our Christian faith, the foundation on which we build our lives.

ARE WE WILLING TO LIVE THE LIFE OF CHRIST? Brothers and sisters, let us be steadfast as we remember the words of the FIRST READING: The righteous one who is faithful will suffer at the hands of the wicked. Nonetheless, God will take care of him. God did not save Jesus from suffering and death at the hands of those who rejected his teaching, but God did raise Jesus to a new life. God does take care of those who are faithful.

Consider the Psalms used today and realize that the Lord God upholds our lives: "O God, by your name, save me, and defend my cause. O God, hear my prayer." Let us proclaim to everyone: "God is my helper; the Lord sustains my life. Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O LORD, for its goodness."

LET US strives for greater awareness in recognizing our common humanity and accompanying one another along life's journey. Also, for greater recognition of the harm happening to the earth, all world leaders and each of us may take meaningful steps to curtail the environmental damage of the planet and work to protect all people, especially the poor and vulnerable, from its effects.

WOMEN SUFFERING AFTER ABORTION NEED SUPPORT. If this is your pain, or the grief of someone you know, consider the upcoming Project Rachel retreat at St. Mary's Refuge, November 8-10, 2024. For more information, contact us through our confidential phone line at 289-691-6840 or e-
