Spiritual Communion with Mary

O Immaculate Queen of Heaven and Earth, Mother of God and Mediatrix of every grace, I believe that thy dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ is truly, really and substantially contained in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love Him above all things and I long to receive Him into my heart. Since I cannot now receive Him sacramentally, be so good as to place Him spiritually in my soul.

O my Jesus, I embrace Thee as One who has already come, and I unite myself entirely to Thee. Never permit me to be separated from Thee.

Amen

Featured Saint of the Week

St. Jerome, Priest & Doctor of the Church (September 30)
Born in Dalmatia, St. Jerome (342-420) studied in Rome. Living a monastic life, he traveled to Syria where he was ordained. Later, he returned to Rome as secretary of Pope Damasus, who commissioned him to revise the Latin texts of books of the Bible. After completing this task, he translated the entire Bible into Latin; his work, known as the Vulgate, was adopted by the Church as the official edition of Scripture

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Peace and Goodness!

The Second Vatican Council devoted the whole of Chapter 5 in Lumen Gentium to the universal call to holiness; this same teaching is also found repeatedly and with a rich diversity of expression in other documents. We are to be holy and give the witness of a holy life (Lumen gentium 10, 32, 39). They have the obligation, not simply an invitation, to strive for the perfection of their own state in life (Unitatis redintegratio 4), and they are therefore to grow to the mature measure of the fullness of Christ himself (Sacrosanctum Concilium 2). The Council presents Jesus as the author and consummator of the universal call in his teaching that everyone is to be perfect and in the greatest of all commandments addressed to all men, a total love for God with entire heart, soul and mind. All the faithful are to practice the spirit of evangelical poverty and therefore to achieve a detachment from this world and its riches (Lumen gentium 42). They are to come to the aid of the poor not only from their superfluities but also from their needed resources, a radical doctrine indeed (Gaudium et Spes 69, 88). The Decree on the Laity states that they are consecrated as holy people both to offer spiritual sacrifices in everything and also to witness to Christ throughout the world. They too are to progress in holiness through a generous dedication to spreading the kingdom, through meditation on the word of God and through the other spiritual aids available in the Church. They are likewise to carry the cross and live the spirit of the beatitudes.

Jesus in the Gospel today made clear that everyone is called to be a disciple but in varied ways. The calling of Matthew, the tax collector is a vivid example of this. God could transform anybody who will allow God to work through him/her.

God waits for our response. Are we willing to follow Him? Ave Maria!
