Stewardship Lifestyle

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” Mark 8:34

Living a Stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. “Taking up my cross” means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it’s convenient for me.

Celebrating an Anniversary:

We offer our congratulations to two couples who celebrated their wedding anniversaries last weekend; Linda and Fred O'Brien whose wedding took place here 56 years ago on Sept. 7th, and to Kevin and Gina Cheung who celebrated 23 years on Sept 8th. We invite anyone who wishes to have a blessing and/or renew their vows to come forward as part of the Prayers of the Faithful.

Ministry of Mission and Discipleship:

We welcome Cory Mae Omega to our pastoral team. She will be facilitating this ministry of service particularly as a resource for sacramental preparation, outreach to youth and families, music ministry occasionally, and much more. Hopefully you will get to meet her and offer your support.

ANNUAL DAY OF PRAYER FOR VICTIMS OF ABUSE

Beginning this year, Sept. 15 will mark the Annual Day of Prayer in our Archdiocese, dedicated to the healing, and hope to the community of victims of clergy sexual abuse and all those who have been affected by abuse.

Let us stand together in solidarity with victim-survivors, offering them our prayers, support, and commitment to justice. May our collective prayers be a source of healing and renewal for our Church and a beacon of hope for all who have been affected by the scourge of abuse.

On this Annual Day of Prayer, we lift to you those who have suffered from clergy sexual abuse and all who have been affected by these acts. Grant them solace in their pain, healing in their wounds, and hope in their darkness. Surround them with your compassion and strength and guide us to support and uplift them with unwavering love. May Your grace bring renewal and peace to our community. We pray to the Lord. Amen.
