World Mission Sunday

Although there probably will be additional financial gifts offered toward Mission Sunday, nonetheless, I would like to thank those who contributed last weekend. The amount given last weekend was $4,060. Your financial assistance will benefit both missionaries as well as those to whom they minister in 3rd world countries. Anyone wishing to contribute to World Mission Sunday is still welcome to do so. God bless you as you give.

All Saints & All Souls

This coming Friday we celebrate All Saints Day which is a day when we remember all the holy women and men who ever lived, both known and unknown. The Letter to the Hebrews refers to them as the "great cloud of witnesses". The following day, Saturday, we commemorate All Souls Day. We remember all the women and men who are deceased and in a state of purification. They need our prayers and sacrifices, so that they may soon enter heaven with the blessed. On Saturday, 2 November, I will offer a Mass at 9 am for all the Faithful Departed.

Sharing God's Gifts 2024

We are accustomed to hearing about Sharing God's Gifts at this time of the year. Our target this year is $93,574 (Sharing God's Gift's $48,771 + Assessment $44,803) and thus far we have collected 37,490. If you have not contributed this year yet, I encourage you to do so. God loves a cheerful giver.

The St. Charles Retreat Centre located across the street from St. Charles Church is open for retreats or a time of silence. There are two Sisters from Nairobi who manage the retreat centre; Sister Lilian and Sister Margaret.

Pray for Vocations

Please keep in your prayers our seminarian Myles Cesario who is studying at St. Joseph's Seminary in Edmonton and Sister Kolbe Marie who is with the Franciscan Sisters of the Renewal in New York. Also, pray that more of our young people will hear the call of our Lord to follow him and the courage to respond.
