NOTE FROM FR. ADAM, CR

Jesus is known to have taken the time to celebrate the beauty and joy of life, much like we do during the summer months. Still, our Lord took time to go to a quiet place with those closest to Him, to pray and regain the strength He needed from the Father and Holy Spirit. Thank you, all parishioners and guests, for choosing St. Margaret Mary Church as your quiet place. We pray that your time with us might give you the strength you need for the coming week.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Beginning this weekend, AUGUST 26TH/27TH, the boxes for Sunday donation will no longer be located in the Narthex. The Ushers will resume going up and down the aisles with the collection baskets to receive donations as we used to do prior to COVID. Many thanks to our dedicated parishioners for your continued financial support of St. Margaret Mary Parish.

R. C. I. A.
