NOTE FROM FR. ADAM, CR

The Lord Jesus probably did not have to sign requests for vacations for his disciples. They did not get extra pay to take a vacation. The fact is, He did send them away so that they could relax. Not to the French Riviera nor the Caribbean, but instead He sent them to a desert, a place far away from noisy crowds and busy streets. A secluded location filled with silence.

So you need to relax as well. You need to stop for a moment or you may break down. Unfortunately, you cannot be replaced, so stop and slow down with your life for a while. Try to take care of your health and strained nerves.

Look inside yourself. Maybe there is a part of your body that especially needs attention. Try to spend some time just by yourself separated from other people. In the silence of the mountains, the forests or by the lakes, try to meditate over the things that really matter to you. Try to hear the birds singing or look at the beautiful flowers in the meadows. Rejoice over all the things that the summer has to offer. Do not hurry, just listen to what the Lord has to tell you. Try to see all of the signs He left for you to read.

Just remember, all the big and important discoveries are made in silence. This is your special time. In a moment that you do not expect, Jesus will come to you - the Light of the world. He will shine His light on your life. And finally, you will know where your destiny is. Have a happy and very enjoyable summer!
