As the summer months pass by, please remember that we must live and celebrate our Catholic faith daily and participate in the Lord's Day every Sunday. We must not use vacation or holidays as an excuse to skip Masses. Instead, relax and be at peace with Christ during the Eucharistic Celebration - wherever you are - Have a wonderful and safe summer!

A NOTE ABOUT DRESS

As we are in the summer months and the warm weather many of us take a more casual view of life. However, we respectfully ask that when coming to church, you dress appropriately for the celebration of the Eucharist. Gym shorts and beach attire are never appropriate for Sunday Mass. All of us are called to show respect to God and to one another as we gather for a Liturgy during the warmer months.
