Spiritual Corner

Excerpt from:

St. Therese of Lisieux by those who knew her Testimonies from the process of beatification

Edited and translated by Christopher O'Mahony.
Published by Veritas Publications.

“The bishop asked her when it was she had first thought of becoming a nun ‘A long time ago,’ was the reply. ‘Still, it can’t be as long as fifteen years,’ interposed the vicar-general with a smile. ‘You don’t have to subtract many years from that,’ she replied ‘because I’ve wanted to be a nun since I was three, and a Carmelite for as long as I’ve known this Order.’ The bishop said he would have to discuss the matter with Fr. Delatroette, the superior of the Carmel, and that he would give his answer later. Therese, knowing Fr. Delatroette’s attitude, was broken-hearted, and the tears flowed. In the course of the conversation M. Martin mentioned that he was thinking of paying a visit to Rome; the bishop approved.” – Testimony of Mother Agnes of Jesus (Therese’s elder sister and future prioress of the Lisieux Carmel.)

Shepherds' Trust

The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity.

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests.

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, we remember how they have been tangible instruments of the Lord's mercy in our lives.

This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it represents a very tangible gesture of thanks for the blessings we have received.

The Shepherds' Trust Collection will take place this weekend. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

PURGATORY

What is Purgatory and how can I lessen my time there?

Purgatory is the purification of those who have been saved and die with God's grace but still need to achieve the holiness to enter heaven. It's a reflection of God's mercy. It's a place where sins have been forgiven, but sufficient penance for those sins has not been completed while on earth. Once in purgatory, the soul has already undergone the Particular Judgement and so, it's not a place of second chances. To lessen time in purgatory, strive to attain that perfect union with God now through prayer, frequent confession in repentance for sins and by doing penance.

How is purgatory different from hell?

Purgatory is temporary in nature with all souls who are there eventually entering heaven. Their suffering is a purifying process preparing them for heaven. Hell, on the other hand, is eternal. There is no purification process, no grace and no salvation.

How is purgatory different from heaven?

Purgatory is a place of suffering because of the souls longing to be with God. The soul knows that one day they will be in heaven with God for eternity but they cannot pray for themselves and must rely on the prayers and offerings of those of us on earth in order to reach heaven.

Can our prayers help our loved ones in purgatory?

Yes, having mass said and prayers offered, particularly the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet, will assist loved ones to get through the purifying process quicker. It's also a wonderful practice to offer up prayers for those in purgatory that have no one to pray for them. These most grateful souls will then in turn pray for us and our needs.

Moving??? Please inform the Parish Office.

This will help us keep parish databases up to date and reduce future costs and administrative effort.
