Parenting Tip

Pope Francis, in his book The Name of God is Mercy, writes that “the family is the first school for children, it is the unwavering reference point for the young, it is there that we have been loved and learn to love, have been forgiven and learn to forgive.” As parents our role is to teach with love, to raise up children of faith and to teach the ways of mercy. Parents allow, elicit, or maintain behaviours by their response to their children’s actions. A child’s future ability to thrive depends on parents taking the time to create habits and behaviours that will lead to success. Schools of love provide support, love and discipline to help their children grow.

The Glorious Mystery of The Assumption

Dear Parishioners:

On Wednesday, August 15 we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of Our Blessed Mother. Since the time Pope Pius XII declared this mystery of faith definitely as a dogma of the universal Church in 1950, we have celebrated the Solemnity with great attention and care. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary indicates that our Blessed Mother did not suffer the corruption of death when she left this world; rather, she was assumed body and soul into the everlasting kingdom of heaven. Our Blessed Mother takes her rightful place in the glorious kingdom of God. Yet her journey is our journey for one day we too shall stand in the glorious presence of God, body and soul at the end time. We are grateful to our Blessed Mother for being ever present in our lives, in this world and in the life to come. As always she guides and comforts us and counsels us to listen to her Son, Jesus Christ.

August 15 has another special meaning for me. This coming Wednesday I will celebrate 20 years of Ordination to the Priesthood. I chose this day for a specific reason: Mary is a special Mother for all her loyal sons and Priests. I am reminded of how important it is to maintain a close bond to our Blessed Mother in order to fulfill the vocation that the Lord has given me as a Priest of the holy Church. I look forward to celebrating this special day with you this coming Wednesday by offering the solemn Mass of thanksgiving. Please pray for me so that the Lord may grant me the strength and wisdom to continue serving Him and His people and may our Blessed Mother intercede for us.

God bless,
Fr. Peter Ciallella
