Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast to hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

~ Amen.

BIBLE SUNDAY

Dear Parishioners:

Today in our Diocese and throughout the Catholic Church in the world we are commemorating Sunday of the Word of God or Bible Sunday. This day is an invitation to Catholics across the world to deepen their appreciation, love and faithful witness to God and his word, according to Pope Francis. By papal decree, we observe this day in January as a special time devoted to “the celebration, study and dissemination of the word of God.”

A day dedicated to the Bible will help the Church “experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world,” the Pope said in the document establishing the special Sunday observance.

Archbishop Rino Fisichella, President of the Pontifical Council for Promoting New Evangelization, added that this special observance on the Word of God is needed because “the overwhelming majority” of Catholics are not familiar with sacred Scripture. For many, the only time they hear the word of God is when they attend Mass: “The Bible is the most widely distributed book, but it’s also perhaps the one most covered in dust because it is not held in our hands,” the Archbishop said.

As this will be the last time I will communicate with you as your Pastor, I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your prayers and understanding as I embark on a major change in my life. I will always cherish the fond memories of these past four and a half years. Perhaps our paths will cross again sometime in the near future. I wish you the very best.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
