WALKING TOGETHER FOR HEALING: A
'PENITENTIAL PILGRIMAGE'

This is such an important week for Canadians, especially for Indigenous peoples, as the Pope arrives in Canada! Archbishop Smith of Edmonton is at the forefront of Catholic and world news as the leader of the team welcoming the Pope on his historic visit to speak with representatives and attendees about the Church's responsibility for the abuse of so many young students at residential schools. Pope Francis calls his visit a 'penitential pilgrimage.' We know now that victims of abuse deal with physical, psychological and spiritual issues for decades, if not for ever, and often succumb to using drugs and alcohol to deaden their pain and suffering. Physical and mental violation also destroys trust and reliance on others, and, while some victims respond fairly well to counselling, psychological and spiritual, others do not.

The power of prayer is seen as essential in contributing to the healing of body, mind and soul. Physical healing is, of course, essential, but whole-person healing is the goal. It is perhaps unfair to place too much responsibility on the shoulders of the Pope, but experience has shown he is authentically appalled at the atrocities committed and has already responded to indigenous representatives in an open and caring way. He is leading the way in the 'walking together' which the rest of us must now do. We must acknowledge the wrongs and continue to right them. Personal responsibility is not the point: this matter calls for the use of the major pillar of Catholic Social Teaching in action – solidarity. Archbishop Smith calls on us to pay attention to the theme of "Walking Together," the theme of the Pope's Visit. "This is what we understand we need to do right now: Walk together, find pathways to mutual understanding, to mutual respect, mutual help and healing." He reminded us that many of us now have "...the sense of wanting to take this issue on fully and move forward in a way that will bring healing to everybody that needs it..."

PRAYER FOR THE 2nd WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I give thanks to you, Lord,
For the blessing of a long life
For, to those who take refuge in You,
Grant always to bear fruit.
Forgive, O Lord,
Resignation and disillusionment,
But forsake me not
When my strength declines.
Teach me to look with hope
To the future you give me,
To the mission you entrust to me
And to sing your praises without end.
Make me a tender craftsman
Of Your revolution,
To guard with love my grandchildren
And all the little ones who seek shelter in You.
Protect, O Lord, Pope Francis
And grant Thy Church
To deliver the world from loneliness.
Direct our steps in the way of peace. Amen

August 6th the feast of the Transfiguration

*"After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them. His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters-one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.) Then a cloud appeared and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!" Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead..." Mark 9:2-9

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
