THE NEW PARISH HALL AT SACRED HEART PARISH

in Paris was blessed last week, followed by a luncheon. The new hall, a One Heart One Soul project for the Parish, provides a much needed office space, meeting space, and social space. Thanks to Father Joseph Okoko, i.v.Dei and faithful parishioners who watched over the project from start to finish and who cheered on the craftsmen and labourers for whom it was a labour of love! Well done indeed!

Prayers for Canada on Canada Day

Thank you, God, You are mighty in power; you extend your reach throughout the planet and the universe. You provide protection and give mercy to your children. We praise you for your protection of Canada as we celebrate your goodness and provision for our nation. We have the privilege of living, worshipping, working, and playing in a free country. Your creation has given Canada an abundance of natural resources and given us the privilege of overseeing what you have provided. From incredible natural beauty, you also provide us the means for sustaining an abundant life for all who live in Canada. You give us the opportunity to not only enjoy your creation here, but you allow us to share our resources with others who have far less. We do not take this for granted Lord; it is a gift we desire to steward wisely and generously. We value our freedom. We value choice. We enjoy these because of your providence and protection. We give thanks for the men and women who serve Canada in our military. We pray for those serving in foreign lands, protect them all Lord by your sovereign will and mighty hand. We give thanks to those who serve in our nation enforcing our civil and moral laws. We ask your great blessing for these ministering angels in our society. Amen

St. Irenaeus

June 28th

St. Irenaeus was the Bishop of Lyon, born in 130 AD in Smyrna in Asia Minor now in modern-day called İzmir, Turkey. He died as a martyr in 202 AD in Lyon, France, previously called Lugdunum. The writings of St. Irenaeus entitle him to a high place among the fathers of the Church, for they not only laid the foundations of Christian theology but, by exposing and refuting the errors of the gnostics, they delivered the Catholic Faith from the real danger of the doctrines of those heretics. His work Adversus haereses (Against Heresies), written about 180, was a refutation of gnosticism. During his writings Irenaeus advanced the development of an authoritative canon of Scriptures, the creed, and the authority of the episcopal office. He was born to Greek parents when the memory of the apostles was still cherished and where Christians were numerous. He was most influenced by St. Polycarp who had known the apostles or their immediate disciples. Many Asian priests and missionaries brought the gospel to the pagan Gauls and founded a local church. To this church of Lyon, Irenaeus came to serve as a priest under its first bishop, St. Pothinus, an oriental like himself. In the year 177, Irenaeus was sent to Rome. This mission explains how it was that he was not called upon to share in the martyrdom of St Pothinus during the terrible persecution in Lyons. When he returned to Lyons it was to occupy the vacant bishopric. By this time, the persecution was over. It was the spread of gnosticism in Gaul, and the ravages it was making among the Christians of his diocese, that inspired him to undertake the task of exposing its errors. He produced a treatise in five books in which he sets forth fully the inner doctrines of the various sects, and afterwards contrasts them with the teaching of the Apostles and the text of the Holy Scripture. His work, written in Greek but quickly translated to Latin, was widely circulated, and succeeded in dealing a deathblow to gnosticism. At any rate, from that time onwards, it ceased to offer a serious menace to the Catholic faith. Though there is no evidence, other than legendary, about his death, the last decade of the 2nd century is generally assumed to be the period in which Irenaeus died. He is the patron saint of apologists and catechists.
