PARISH NEWS

First Holy Communion 2021: There will be a mandatory meeting for all parents whose children (Grade 2) will be preparing to celebrate the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. The meeting will take place in Church on Wednesday, November 25 at 7:00 pm. Letters of invitation and registration forms have been sent to our 2 Catholic Schools. If you have not received a letter with further instruction, please stop by the office or pick up a packet after Mass.

Health and Safety Team: As we continue to abide by the protocols for keeping our church open, we need more volunteers to help out. We cannot maintain our church open unless we are able to properly sanitize after each Mass. Please contact the Parish Office.

Book of Life: Throughout the month of November, The Book of Life will be placed in the sanctuary. Due to the restrictions, please write the name(s) of your deceased loved ones on a piece of paper and leave it in the collection basket. We will add the names. Only write the names of those who are currently not included in the book. They will be remembered at Mass throughout the month of November.

New Sunday Missals for 2021: Are available at the back of the Church for $5.00; Youth Missals - $10.00.

Office Hours: If you need to reach the office to book a Mass or for other information/service please call 519-449-5143, from 9:00 am until 2:00 pm or by email blessedsacramentburford@hamiltondiocese.com. We will do our best to return your call in a timely manner.

Newly Baptized: We welcome the newest member of our Catholic Family: John David Keczan (parents, John and Laura). We pray that he will continue to grow in his faith with the guidance and love of his parents and godparents.

Fourth Annual World Day of the Poor: In 2017, Pope Francis suggested the Catholic Church set aside one day each year when communities can “reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel.” He designated this day as the World Day of the Poor, and it will be celebrated on the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time each year. Let us be mindful of the poor who bear the brunt of the pandemic.

Truth and Untruth in Today's World

Dear Parishioners:

The following is an excerpt from an article by Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI (Catholic Register, November 1, 2020):

Looking at today's world what frightens and unsettles me – more than the pandemic, the gap between rich and poor and environmental degradation, is our sense of loss of truth. Our facile denial of whatever truths we judge to be inconvenient and our slogans of “fake news”, “alternate facts” and phantom conspiracies (like a fraudulent election) are rather disconcerting.

Social media, for all the good it has brought, has created a platform for anyone to make up his or her own truths and then work at eroding the truths that bind us together and anchor our sanity...This evil of falsehood and deception (as Jesus alerted in the Gospel) tells us that Satan is predominantly the Prince of Lies. Lying is the ultimate spiritual, moral and psychological danger. It lies at the root of what Jesus calls the, “unforgiveable sin against the Holy Spirit.” Jesus points out time and again that if we tell a lie long enough, eventually we will believe it and this so warps our conscience that we begin to see truth as falsehood and falsehood as truth. The sin then becomes unforgiveable because we no longer want to be forgiven nor indeed will we accept forgiveness. God is willing to forgive but we are unwilling to accept forgiveness because we see sin as good and goodness as sin...One clear lesson from the Gospels is this: lying is the most dangerous of all sins....

Our personal sanity and our social sanity depend upon the truth, upon us acknowledging the truth, and upon us telling the truth...When we cannot own up to the truth then we lose trust in our institutions and each other and moreover such deception can injure and harm all our relationships, including our relationship to God [T]he ultimate spiritual and moral danger is to cover our weaknesses with lies, lies that allow Satan, the Prince of Lies, to prevail.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
