LABOUR DAY AND THE LIFE OF THE FAMILY

"Fill us at daybreak with your kindness,
that we may shout for joy and gladness
all our days.

And may the gracious care of the LORD
our God be ours;

Prosper the work of our hands for us!

Prosper the work of our hands!"

(Psalm 90:14-17)

Dear Parishioners:

This Labour Day, we draw our attention to our sisters and brothers who face twin crises—deep trials in both the world of work and the state of the family. These challenging times can pull us toward despair and all the many dangers that come with it. Into this reality, the Church shares a word of hope, directing hearts and minds to the dignity of each human person and the sanctity of work itself, which is given by God. She seeks to replace desperation and isolation with human concern and true solidarity, reaffirming the trust in a good and gracious God who knows what we need before we ask him (Mt. 6:8).

Dignified work is at the heart of our human endeavour because we draw insight into who we are as human beings from it. Saint John Paul II reminded us that human labour is an essential key to understanding our social relationships, vital to family formation and the building up of community according to our God-given dignity.

Let us pray for dignified work and opportunity for all families who continually strive to build a better life for themselves and their children.

God bless,
Fr. Peter Ciallella
